

As a Christian parent, I am very concerned that K-LOVE may not be available in my area due to the proposed low power FM. K-LOVE is the only family friendly station avail in our area. We have a large population of older people that also benefit because they can't always get out. Who knows what we would hear on these same airways if the LPFM goes through. Now we have a choice. That is very important to this community.